On Friday afternoon and Saturday morning participants are invited to attend – either online or in presence – the workshop The African Renaissance in the Age of Globalization. What Role for International Investment Law?

Professor José Alvarez of New York University will be the keynote speaker. The full programme of the workshop will be available at the end of August.

PARTICIPANTS AND APPLICATION

The course is free of charge.

It is open to 20 participants in presence and up to 80 on line.

It is designed primarily for national and international civil servants, junior diplomats, lawyers and judges from LDCs.

It is also open to master and research students in international law and germane disciplines.

Up to 10 participants will benefit from a reimbursement up to 400 euro to partly cover the accommodation expenses for attending the course in presence. Reimbursement will be allocated on the basis of professional qualifications and considering gender and nationality balance.

Applicants are requested to fill in the application form including a 2-page curriculum vitae by 15 September 2023 on the dedicated web page of the SPGI Department: <https://www.spgi.unipd.it/en/teaching/winter-and-summer-schools/winter-school>.

Upon conclusion of the course, participants in presence will receive a formal certificate of attendance.
