THE EUROPEAN UNION AT A CRITICAL JUNCTURE:

Policy trade-offs,
Accountability and Coordinative
Europeanization

This lecture will illustrate the new form of coordinative Europeanisation that emerged during the pandemic crisis and the state of the debate on the future EU budget, with a special focus on the EU's key investment policy (EU cohesion policy), in order to shed light on the currently unresolved policy trade-offs and their implications for accountability and the future of the EU as a political project.
