Via del Santo, 28 - 35123 Padova

2. handed in personally to the Erasmus/Internationalization Office of the Department of Political Science, Law and International Studies, via del Santo 28 – 1st floor, room 02 013 on Tuesday and Wednesday 10 am - 1pm and 3 pm - 5 pm.

3. sent through certified e-mail to: dipartimento.spgi@pec.unipd.it

For further information contact Dr Ester Pasquato (email ester.pasquato@unipd.it, tel. 049 8274082)

Documents to be annexed to the application form are:

- Self-certification of the BA degree with the list of passed exams with marks and ECTS credits; Self-certification of the enrollment at the Master's degree, with the list of the passed exams with marks and ECTS credits;
- Motivation letter;
- Curriculum Vitae (<http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/en/documents/curriculum-vitae>);
- Photocopy of a valid Passport or Identity card;
- English Language Certificates.

Annex I provides the application form (in Italian) students have to fill. Incomplete applications will not be evaluated.

Art. 4 – Selection criteria

Student selection will be based on the following criteria:

- Weighted average of marks
- Motivation letter
- Curriculum vitae
- Knowledge of the English language

The selection will be made by the Commission appointed by the EGoS Council. Candidates are required to be present at the meeting scheduled on 17th April 2019 at 10.30 am in prof. Domorenok office (via del Santo 28, second floor) with their ID card. Candidates who will not take part in the selection will be automatically excluded from the final ranking.

Art. 5 – Selection procedure and ranking

Students' applications will be evaluated according to the following criteria:

- From 0 to 60 points: weighted average marks (related to the BA and MA programme)

- From 0 to 15 points: curriculum;
- From 0 to 20 points: motivation letter and interview
- From 0 to 5 points: knowledge of English language

To be admitted to the double degree programme candidates have to obtain at least 60 points out of 100.

The ranking list will be published and made available at the Erasmus/Internationalization Office of the Department of Political Science, Law and International Studies, via del Santo 28 – 1st floor, as well as on the web page <http://www.spgi.unipd.it/didattica/mobilita-internazionale/doppio-diploma> on 18th April 2019.

Selected students will be informed about when and how to confirm acceptance. In case they do not confirm, next students in the ranking list will succeed.

Art. 6 – Fellowship/ Funding

Double Degree Students will receive a scholarship of 700 €/month for 12 months maximum. A reimbursement of 400 € maximum will be given for travel expenses. Before leaving, students will sign a financial contract which will define the amount and the disbursement methods. Students will receive a first instalment of 70% of the total amount within 2 months from their departure, on the basis of their Arrival Certificate. They will receive the balance (30%) and the travel reimbursement after their return to Padova University on the basis of their Attendance Certificate.

At the end of the mobility, students will be asked to write a brief report on the carried out activities. The scholarship is strictly connected to the participation to the programme and the attainment of the two degrees. If the mobility is interrupted in advance without good reasons, students will have to return the scholarship. In particular:

- In case of withdrawal within 3 months , students will be asked to return the entire sum
- After 3 months, they will receive only the money corresponding to the exact number of days spent abroad.

Selected students are exempted from paying fees at the host university, but they should be regularly enrolled at the University of Padova and therefore continue to pay its fees.

Art. 7 – Study Plan

The study plan is defined in the Annex II.

Students are supposed to obtain 60 ECTS credits in Padua and 60 ECTS credits in Krakow as defined in the Annex II. All the courses in the Jagiellonian University in Krakow will be taught in English.
