MEETING 2021

Filippo Rosin
Luca Peciarolo
12 March 2021
10:30-12:00

The Department of Political Science, Law, and International Studies has organised a series of workshops with the goal of developing cross-cutting competencies such as:

- Communication
- Planning and Organising
- Teamwork

In this session an officer from the Norwegian Refugee Council (NRC) will initially present his current work activities. After that, students will receive suggestions and learn tips on career paths. Time has been allocated for questions and answers.

Guest Trainer profile: Mr. Luca Peciarolo is a humanitarian practitioner with first-hand experience in programmatic and policy roles focusing on the Middle East and South East Asia. Among others, over the past 15 years he led Mercy Corps humanitarian response in northern Syria and supported the Norwegian Refugee Council (NRC) in establishing its largest and most ambitious operation in the Middle East. Luca also worked for the United Nations, the International Organisation for Migration (IOM), the World Food Programme (WFP), and CARE, and is now leading the Humanitarian Policy efforts of NRC Geneva. An Italian national, Luca graduated from the Universities of Bologna and Ferrara before obtaining a post-graduate degree in Humanitarian Assistance from Fordham University in New York.
